

Talk of the Town

PUTTING OURSELVES INTO GEAR ... Friday gear that is. It's somewhere between third gear and fourth.

EVERY PIECE OF JEWELRY in the store is marked down for the summer sale at Estatements Luxury Consignment. This is the place where vintage jewelry, men's gold watches, ladies handbags and more are all offered at very special pricing. Stop in and visit with Connie, view the showroom and purchase the gift of a lifetime at 395 Main St. in downtown Los Altos. Call Connie or one of the expert staff members at (650) 941-7828 for more information.

BE A PIANO MAN. It's never too late to learn to play and it's not too late to save up to 50% on the hottest-selling pianos at the A. McBain Carnes Piano Company in San Jose. They have Kawai pianos at factory direct prices. You can get a brand new Kawai baby grand for only $7,988. They have a huge selection and offer piano rentals, too. Free delivery comes with all piano purchases or rentals. Stop by 395 S. Winchester Blvd. or call (408) 248-9200.

DINE AMONG THE REDWOODS. Bill

Petkopoulos's Parkside Grille restaurant is in beautiful Portola Valley surrounded by beautiful redwood trees. The restaurant offers lunch during the week and dinner every day. Bill and his staff serve classic, delicious lunches and dinners that range from elegant seafood dishes and thick steaks to burgers and gourmet pizza for the kids. Using fresh local ingredients in the dishes and serving chilled cocktails and an unmatched wine selection all make the Parkside Grille a destination restaurant. Check the website for menus and more information or stop on by The Parkside Grille at 884 Portola Road in Portola Valley. Call (650) 529-9007 for reservations.

DOES YOUR HEART RACE when you need to read a real estate contract? That is a common reaction because it is important to know that everything in it is correct. That is why, when you choose a Realtor, you should consider Dottie Monroe of Alain Pinel. She has been carefully dotting the "i's" and crossing the "t's" for her clients for over 20 years. Call her today at (650) 208-2500 or visit www.DottieMonroeHomes.com to learn more. Monroe, Dottie

CLEAR THE SHELTERS! The Peninsula Humane Society and SPCA in Burlingame will team up with NBC Universal-owned television stations for the second annual "Clear the Shelters" pet adoption drive tomorrow. PHS/SPCA is the only Bay Area shelter offering "name-your-own-fee adoptions" as part of the nationwide initiative that seeks to find new homes for homeless pets. Stop in and meet Lovable senior calico Jezebel, over 45 dogs and puppies and 100 cats and kittens. They all await their forever homes, as do the bunnies, guinea pigs, reptiles, birds and other pets. Enjoy carnival-style food, fun and special prizes for the whole family. Adopters can purchase their pet's start-up needs in PHS/SPCA's retail store, Furchandise. The event will be at the Center for Compassion at 1450 Rollins Road in Burlingame. For more information, go to www.phs-sPCA.org.

HOT WEATHER ALERT! Things will get toasty this weekend, so if you want something refreshing and delicious, stop by Miyo Yogurt in Menlo Park for frozen yogurt and ice cream. They offer many fun toppings to make your favorite flavor just as you like it. Stop in and create your very own frozen treat. Miyo Yogurt is located at 842 Santa Cruz Ave. in downtown Menlo Park. Stop by and tell Jose you saw him in the Daily Post or call (650) 325-6496.
