Fourteen Year Old Dachshund and Beagle Mix Surrendered to Peninsula Humane Society Seeks New Home

Burlingame, CA—The Peninsula Humane Society & SPCA (PHS/SPCA) is seeking adopters for a fourteen year old Dachshund and Beagle mix named Daisy.

Daisy was first adopted as a puppy from PHS/SPCA in 2003, but her family is dealing with serious health issues and was no longer able to provide the care and attention Daisy needs. She was surrendered to PHS/SPCA this past June and is available for adoption again for an adoption fee of $75.

“Daisy’s family had to make a heartbreaking decision to surrender her, but it was done with Daisy’s best interests at heart since they could no longer care for her,” said Buffy Martin Tarbox, PHS/SPCA Communications Manager. “She’s quite active for being fourteen years old and still has lots of love to give to a new family.”

Adopting an older dog has many benefits, including being already house-trained, less destructive than younger dogs and they have mellower personalities.

“Daisy is spayed and fully vaccinated. She loves to play, has excellent leash manners and is easy to handle,” according to Tarbox. “Plus she’s adorable.”

People interested in meeting Daisy should visit the Peninsula Humane Society & SPCA at 1450 Rollins Road in Burlingame, or call 650-340-7022. Her adoption fee is $75.

Daisy is also available for news crew cameras to film.

About Peninsula Humane Society & SPCA

Peninsula Humane Society is a private, open-door, not-for-profit animal welfare organization. Primary programs include animal adoptions; animal rescue and sheltering, including specialty care for domestic animals with medical and/or behavioral challenges; wildlife rehabilitation; animal cruelty investigation; community outreach and education; low-cost spay/neuter; and obedience classes. This vital work is made possible by volunteers and donations. PHS receives no funding from national animal welfare organizations.
